Dear Richard,
This is from a friend
old and new, and how well you know I know of quite a few
etc. I'll write a goodie.
So Mary had a little dress,
and she didn't see Mary?
But couldn't see Mary?
How's house so you know I good.
Take life, Mary?
Thank D. Bell

The Airliner is the symbol of development and progress for our world of tomorrow. It is the key to the reaching of untouched riches, and the opening of a great new channel for world brotherhood. For the students of today, who will become the citizens of tomorrow, aviation can lead the way in the vital responsibility for cementing world peace and understanding and a greater advancement for all nations.

As swiftly as the most modern airliner, the year has flown. It has been a happy one—full of athletic events, plays, home work, and exams. In the following pages may you relive one year's trip at Peoria High School—1945-1946, with all of its pleasant memories.

To a teacher whose high ideals are shown by her unselfishness and firmness, and whose decisions are always just;

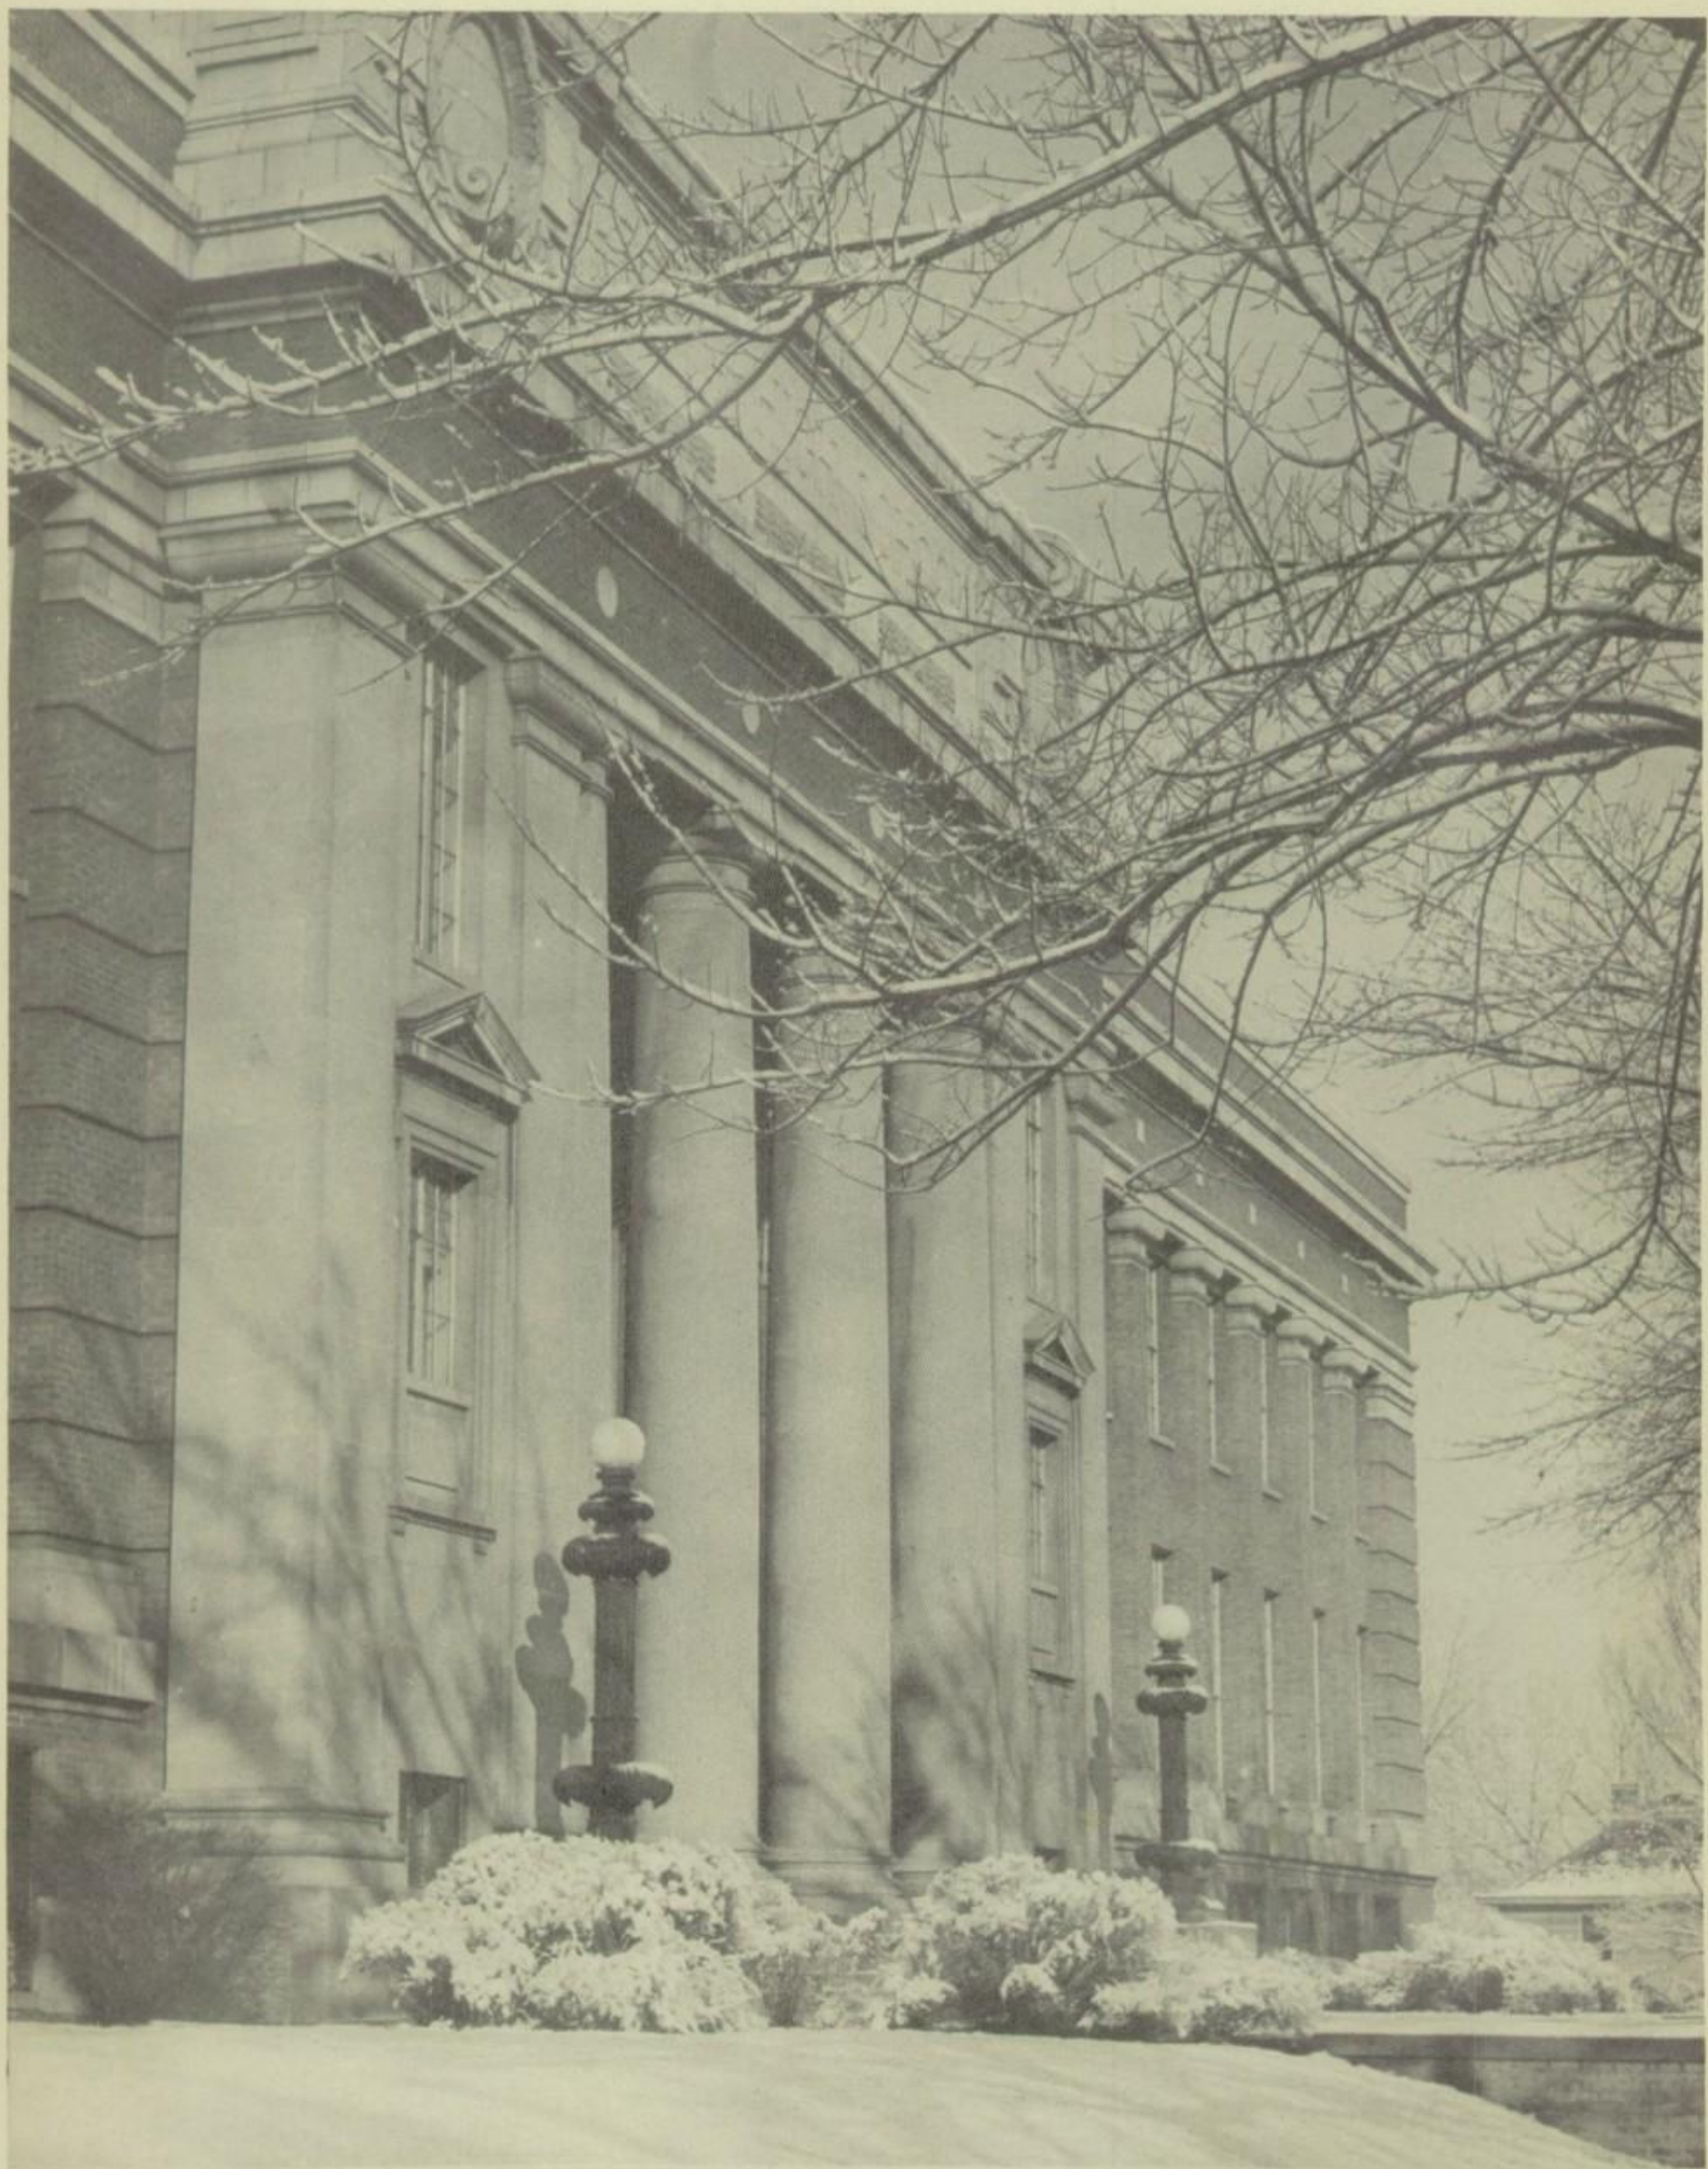

To a teacher of tireless energy, who deals discerningly with all problems confronting her;

To a teacher whose quiet and reserve merit and receive the admiration of all who come into contact with her;

To

Helen V. Conway

we respectfully dedicate this, the 1946 CREST.

Our Memorial

We honor these—the gold star boys of Peoria High School, who have had their flight through life cut short by the storm of war. Never can they be revered enough. May God cause the hearts of all nations to treasure the peace for which these boys gave their lives—a peace which we who remain should make sound and permanent. May we be inspired with vision and determination to make freedom a living thing, with justice to the humblest, be he black or white, foreign or native. These boys are forever blessed as the saviors of the freedom and righteousness which it is now our duty to maintain.

Flight's End

Our swift flight through P.H.S. has ended — we have reached our first destination. The ability and confidence gained on this trip will help us as we make future flights, seeking new and greater heights.

The Senior

In our days at Peoria High
We've had a lot of fun.
We've laughed and learned and cried a bit,
And now those days are done.

We've laughed to hear the old folks say,
"Those happy high school days!"
Just what they meant, we're learning now
At the parting of the ways.

Our paths may never cross again—
Divided, we may be;
But "in honor and in love we pledge
Our highest loyalty."

Flying High

We have gained altitude and are flying smoothly. Soon we will reach our destination; but until then, we cannot afford to take our eyes from the constantly-changing pattern of the world below us, for we will not make this trip again.

The Junior

We Juniors smile to remember
Our first two Central years.
We've come a long, long way, it seems,
From Freshmen hopes and fears.

We've lost all trepidation now,
Of the mighty Senior class.
We've learned to know them rather well
And we hate to see them pass.

So "here's to thee, Peoria High,
Forever we will work for thee—"
We're going now to take their place,
We hope, efficiently.

Take Off

Our journey has begun and at last we are on our way. The thrill of the take-off has faded away, and we are now looking forward to the miles ahead.

Dear Dick,
Well here there are Creeds are out and I'm starting to get all the names and things in my book & yours. It's quite a job to try and get back books signed but I'll do my best.

night of June 11 about two weeks later.

Well, baby I didn't get many in your book but I got you a book and that's what counts you can get it signed yourself when you get home.
I just got a new few in my own and none in Ernie's cause she left him here for me to have signed. Now about us. We've had good times & bad time but you know how I really feel about you & I always will feel that way. It was meant for us to meet darling and we did. This may look scribbly but I'm in bed and every word is from my heart. I can't wait till you get out and we have wonderful time again like we use to. Those wonderful parties and swimming, shower, hay rack ride etc.,

The Sophomore

We have more fun than any class,
After and during school.
We get our studies, too—sometimes.
(Why does sophomore mean "wise fool?")

We Sophomores know a lot of things—
What more is there to learn?
And yet we're anxious to become
Each upper class in turn.

For "thou hast set a goal for us,
We seek it constantly."
(What makes the upperclassmen gaze
On us disdainfully?)

Destination-Education

We are eager to be on our way. Those who have left before us say nothing can compare with this journey. All this planning seems to be a waste of time; but we realize that we must chart our trip with care. Let's get our tickets and climb aboard.

CREST AIR LINES

but were going to have better times in the future admit me (I hope so) It will be wonderful having kids etc. Don't see Linda any more because she graduates and they don't have any school so she's never there. Wish you were here to graduate + have all the fun like you mucher said. It doesn't seem like graduation because you're not here. Mom + Ray aren't going to be home for two weeks and I'm home all alone wish you were here so you could stay with me.

B.W. stayed last night but didn't get here till 11:30 or so. Had to work at Prim Poole Link but going to work in isn't it well, sweet's I'm tired didn't get to sleep till 1:00 and was about wore out so will close.

The Freshman

We know we Freshmen of today
Are not the first e'er here,
But it's still wondrous to perceive
That we have stayed the year.

We have had an awful battle
'Gainst the upperclassmen's scorn;
And the numb'ring of annex rooms
Is that which must be borne.

But "for the knowledge we are gaining Gratefully we strive for thee."
The efforts made, however paining,
Will make us Sophomores, see?

The fall departs and in its stead,
There comes the Winter, cold and dead,
And yet no part of wintry gloom

Here Winter's the time for basketball,
For caroling in the lower hall,
For dances, for parties, Christmas vacations,
For cramming all night before examinations.

Alums abound and every night
Central's engaged in a snowball fight—
But we rejoice when breezes bring Harbingers of an early Spring.

Just as the stewardess makes our plane trip more enjoyable, so do the extra-curricular activities make our trip through school more pleasant. This would soon become a monotonous flight, were it not for the enjoyable hours spent in the various forms of diversion.

Lee Hinnen

Central is grateful for the capable leadership of our hardworking President, Lee Hinnen. Aside from his duties on student council, Lee has found time to be active in athletics and to be a prominent member of the social committee. Always on the job when there's work to be done, you can count on Lee. Because he's such an "all-round" likeable person, we predict for Lee Hinnen success at whatever he does.

Student council has had a very active year. Under the capable sponsorship of Miss McGrath, we have conducted elections, published a student directory, planned exchange assemblies, planned and provided for a needy family at Christmas, helped P.T.A. with its paper drive and taken charge of the Infantile Paralysis Drive. With all of these duties we have found time to sponsor an all school Christmas Formal.

Every Friday the students receive a copy of the Opinion. Sometimes they don't think about it, but there is much hard work behind each issue. We who comprise the two staffs work hard to turn out a complete "all-round" issue.

We, a new but active committee, have helped make the new recreation building possible. The whole student body assisted by the community helped us raise funds to finance the project. We now act as a consulting board for the building.

MEMORIAL IN THE MAKING

MUSICALE

The choral department under the leadership of Miss Florence Poshard presented an interpretation of different types of music in March. A miniature minstrel show by the girls' and boys' glee clubs, excerpts from operas by a school chorus, a sparkling ballet (ably directed by Mrs. Gertrude Epstein), modern music favorites by the girls' choir, and climactic interpretation of sacred music by the a cappella choir combined to make this a memorable evening.

Problem Father

Senior Class Play

In a reversal of the usual "problem-child" play, we chose as our Senior presentation, "Problem Father". Don Locher humorously portrayed the father with a world of revolutionary ideas for bettering the human race. Charmaine Evans as the mother, Clara Hubbard as the grandmother, and Lee Leman and Leigh Johnson as the daughter and son with excellent acting try uselessly to make him a normal man.

Included in the Girl Reserves of Peoria High School are the Gayettes, a group made up of colored girls who meet separately by preference but take part in all inter-club activities.

At the end of their season, the Maroon gridmen turned in a record of 5 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. Using a fast "pony backfield", they always gave their opponents, winners and losers alike, a battle and a lot of worry.

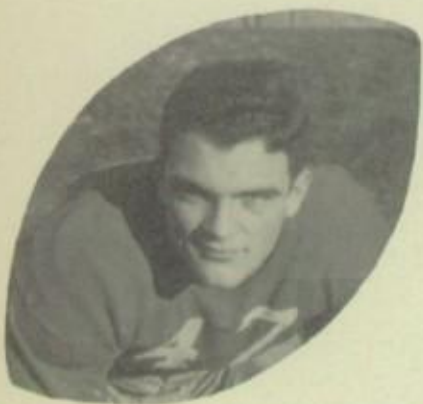

For a season opener, the Maroons met Springfield Feitshans and brought back a 26-0 win, which incidently gained them a fitting revenge for last year's 25-13 defeat. Not waiting to be called on, the Maroon's "pony backfield" opened up in the second quarter and continued at a furious pace until the gun. Chillicothe's Gray Ghosts were the next victims of the Maroon onslaught. After being held to a 7-6 margin in the first half, the Maroons roared back to clinch the victory 32-6. With their hopes and aims high, the Maroons next played Woodruff. The game was a see-saw affair until midway in the third quarter when Jim Robertson scooped up a Woodruff fumble, raced to pay dirt, but was called back as the ball was ruled dead. Later Woodruff converted a Maroon fumble into 6 points and carried off the victory.

Heart broken at their first defeat and with a longing for revenge, the Maroons next faced the Spalding Irish. Although they outplayed the Irish, the Maroons again were defeated in a "heart breaker" 18-13. Tired of being pushed around but doped to lose, the Maroons met Streater. Taking the kickoff, Bill Blackwell raced 82 yards for a touchdown. The Bulldogs never really recovered and another win was added to the Maroon record. With hopes of again upsetting a favored team, the Maroons next traveled to Springfield to meet a top Solon team, and held them to a 6-6 halftime deadlock. Paced by Jerry Slack, however, the Solons came back to hand the Maroons a 26-13 defeat.

Got him, Don?

Then the Maroons met Pekins' Chinks and played to a 13-13 tie. For three quarters the score was 0-0, but both teams capitalized twice in the fourth quarter. East Peoria came next on the list, and again the Maroons suffered a heart breaker. Picking up a Maroon fumble, East Peoria scored and converted making the score 13-6. Playing Danville for the first time, the Maroons left a good impression on them by defeating them 19-7. To finish the season, the Maroons handed their ancient rivals a thorough 31-0 defeat, which made the Ram's season perfect with 10 losses and 0 wins.

The Maroon Fr.-Soph. gridmen were Greater Peoria champs this year and will return next year to be added to the remaining Varsity members. With these as a nucleus, the hopes for next year are bright.

Joy Cross Country Carnival—2nd Place

Appearing for the first time since 1931 at P.H.S., Cross Country made a successful comeback. Under the guidance of Glenn Schwartz, a former cross country man at Bradley and holder of the Bradley all time record in the mile run, ten fellows started the season's drills. Gradually the drills became stiffer and the runs longer. As the season progressed and "Coach" was getting his team into condition for the annual Joy Cross Country Carnival, the hospital robbed the squad of one runner, while several others dropped out because of sore muscles. Five fellows made the trip to Joy, where they met five highly experienced teams and Monmouth, another beginning team. With what little experience they had, the fellows did a fine job.

Returning next year are two lettermen, "Jake" Walker and Bill Pool, so the outlook is fairly bright. The team's aim is to return to Joy next season, bring home the class A trophy, and incidentally beat Rock Island.

Heart broken by their 2 point loss, the Maroons half-heartedly played Belleville for the E. St. Louis consolation title and lost 38-19.

CENTRAL 39 — WOODRUFF 45

Playing without "Robbie", the Maroons pulled out of a drop with the score 43-29—Woodruff. Starting a scoring drive, they narrowed that down to a 45-39 loss.

CENTRAL 32 — PEKIN 37

The Chinks provided the Maroon fans with the next thriller; but a fighting Central team went down 37-32.

CENTRAL 35 — MANUAL 54

Meeting Manual on the Armory hardwoods, although they lost, the Maroons proved again their never dying spirit of play.

CENTRAL 28 — SPRINGFIELD 29

Playing neck to neck with the Solons for the entire game, the Maroons made their winning basket too late—the basket was ruled out and Springfield won.

CENTRAL 34 — E. PEORIA 49

Paced by Cliff Young, the Maroons, battered around for 10 games, held the Raiders to 49 points while they chalked up 34 for themselves.

CENTRAL 37 — STREATOR 35

Playing his "Farewell" game, Robbie led his teammates to a 37-35 victory over Streator's Bulldogs and their slow break.

CENTRAL 47 — CANTON 48

With the victory flavor still in their mouths and the longing to win, the Maroons faced Canton and outplayed them on the floor, but not in points.

CENTRAL 36 — WOODRUFF 59

Again the Maroons met the Woodruff Warriors and although they entered the game with a broken spirit, they fought hard.

CENTRAL 33 — SPALDING 43

Spalding's Irish led by Carrigan and Flanagan again defeated the Maroons by a 43-33 decision.

CENTRAL 42 — MANUAL 54

Manual with one of its best teams in years again handed the Maroons a defeat to the tune of 54-42.

CENTRAL 35 — PEKIN 61

CENTRAL 37 — WASHINGTON 47

Before meeting Streator again, the Maroons met the Panthers at Washington and dropped another game.

CENTRAL 34 — STREATOR 42

Hoping to end their losing streak, the Maroons traveled to Streator, but were defeated by the Bulldogs.

CENTRAL 34 — SPRINGFIELD 63

Looking for revenge, the Maroons traveled to Springfield, but a highly geared Solon squad sank 63 points while holding the Maroons to 34.

CENTRAL 51 — ELMWOOD 19

Drawing Elmwood as their partner for the first round of the Canton regional, hope that the Maroons might advance in the tourney was aroused by a 51-19 win over Elmwood.

CENTRAL 45 — CANTON 49

Again the Maroons met Canton, and hoping for a revenge win, they battled hard but again Canton topped them by a small margin.

This year the Maroons turned in the worst season in basketball history at Peoria High. Yet, one must remember that all teams have their "ups" and "downs". In spite of the fact that there were 20 losses and 3 wins, some of the losses were by close scores which proves the fact that our team always went down fighting and not loafing.

Baseball

Behind the pitching of Weik & Weeks, Inc., the Maroons faced a season of tough competition emerging Intra-city, Gr. Peoria, and Big 12 champs, with a record of 17 wins—5 losses.

To start the season, the Maroons met Chillicothe, dropping them 7-0. Then they romped on for an eleven game winning streak. East Peoria went down 2-1; Galesburg lost twice (6-1 and 6-4); Washington was next 14-4; Pekin bowed 13-4, while Chillicothe fell to the tune of 20-0. After winning a double header from Champaign 13-4 and 6-4, the Maroons turned to Gr. Peoria competition, dropping Woodruff 3-0 and East Peoria 6-4. Kewanee broke our winning streak with a 3-2 win, only to be defeated in the second game 8-2. After defeating Manual 3-2, the boys traveled to Bloomington for a double header, losing the first 2-1 and winning the second 3-1. The rain prevented the completion of the Pekin game in the 6th inning, leaving the score at 1-1. Princeville fell in a prevue of the Princeville District Tourney 6-3. Then came the upset of the year. Princeville always put up a stiff fight, but a superior P.H.S. team up to now had always come out on top. Yet, in the district, Peoria High was eliminated by Princeville 5-3. The Oak Park double headers ended as defeats for the Maroons, 9-1 and 7-0. Despite this, they then topped Manual 9-2, clinching the Big 12 crown.

Returning next year are Fred Voight, catcher, Jim Robertson, short stop, Kenny Schwab, third base, Don Page, center field, and Gene Koch, right field, who with others from the reserves and Fr.-Soph. will make next year's team, which will again be a top contender of Illinois.

Track

The Peoria High Thinclads started out the season in top shape. Traveling to Kewanee, they revenged the 1944 defeat by handing the Boilermakers a $62\frac{1}{2}$ - $50\frac{1}{2}$ defeat. Next came the annual meet with Pekin, which decides the possession of the "Fire Helmet"—P.H.S. retained it. With two wins to their credit, the P.H.S. cindermen turned their faces to Geneseo, and returned with a second place. Statistics pointed to a better team than the 1944 team, as Bloomington bowed to the Central Powerhouse. Unable to attend the Wheaton Relays, the fellows again journeyed to Kewanee for the first annual Kewanee Relays. The competition was stiff and the night cold. It was there that the team met disaster—"Bullet Bill" Blackwell pulled a muscle which kept him inactive for the remainder of the season. The annual Delavan Track Carnival was next, and despite the loss of Bill, another trophy came home. Here again, disaster struck as Bob Baker, our star hurdler, donned the Navy blues. With the loss of "Bake" and Bill, generally sure of 15 points, P.H.S. bowed to Pekin in the Greater Peoria and placed seventh in the Big 12.

Although the latter part of the season wasn't as good as the first, the 1945 Track Team was another top track crew in the history of P.H.S. Without the two losses, it would have topped last year's record.

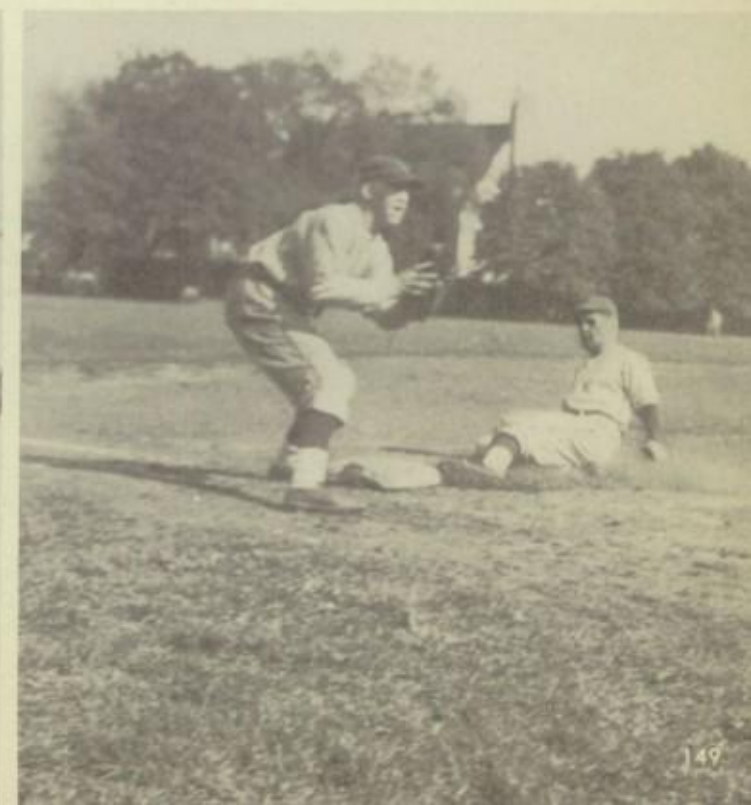

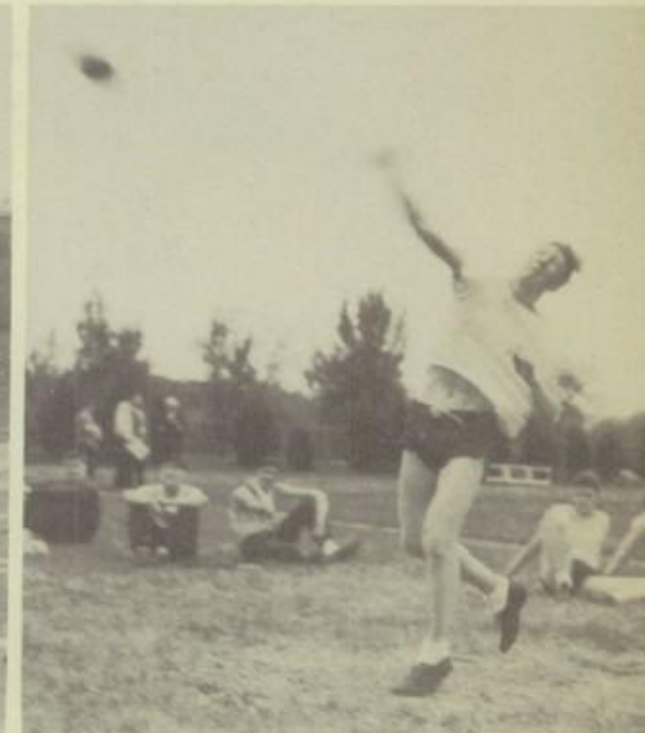

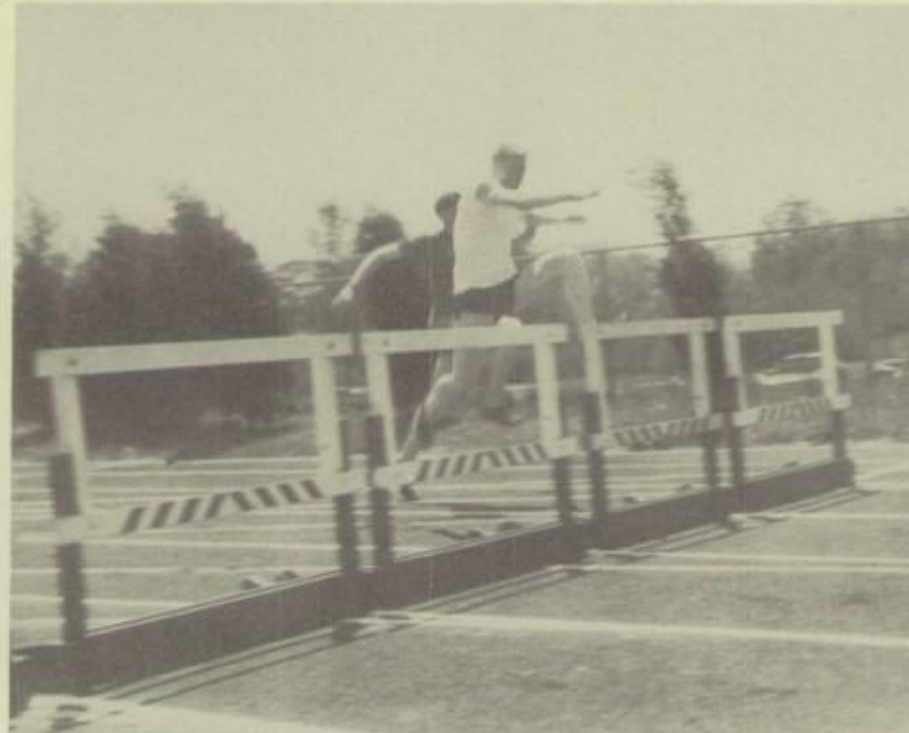

Returning for the 1946 season are lettermen, among whom are Don Locher, discus and weight man, Bill Blackwell (who should really set some records) and Dick Roehm in the hurdle position. Peoria High has produced fine teams in the past, and the outlook for next season points to another.

The Maroon tennis team coached by Harold Reesman broke even in dual meets this season with 4 wins and 4 losses.

After dropping their starter to Pekin 6-0, the Maroons traveled to Lincoln to cop a 6-0 decision over the Railsplitters. Defeating Bloomington 5-2, the Maroons bowed to Decatur's Big Reds 4-2. The Railsplitters again bowed 4-0, while Decatur handed us the 3rd defeat 4-2. Bloomington again fell before the Peoria rackets; but Pekin again won 4-2. Placing 2nd in the district, the Maroons traveled to State, where Stewart, Cohen, and Krag were defeated in the 1st round. Placing 3rd in the Big 12, the Maroons closed another chapter in the history of tennis at Peoria High.

Returning next season are Cohen, King, Krag, and Harker, so the material is ready for another season of top competition.

Once again the Maroon linksmen carried on in the Central tradition and brought back many honors. They opened their season by defeating Pekin and continued in a winning stride, only to be downed once by Kewanee, a defeat which they later revenged by a $7\frac{1}{2}$ - $4\frac{1}{2}$ decision over the Boilermakers. After winning the district, the team went on to bring back 5th place in the State Tournament, repeating last season's performance. The Big 12 being cancelled, the Maroons closed their season with 10 wins, 1 loss, 1st in the district, 5th in the state, and 1st in Greater Peoria.

The team consisted of Frank Van Auken, Don Sommer, John Merrill, Jim Love, and Lyle Gift. Love and Gift will be returning next year. It was coached by Mr. Van Deventer. Although only two are returning, we'll have veteran Jimmy Love, who has constantly improved his golf and will probably bring back some individual honors.

Swimming

Taking its place with Cross Country this year as a revived sport was swimming. Under the coaching of Mr. Yuhause, the team met and practiced at the Y. M. pool. Their first meet was with Danville (at Peoria) which they dropped 51-15. They then traveled to Bloomington for their second dual meet but dropped it also 53-12. Not discouraged, the fellows immediately set to work practicing for their next encounter, the Big 12. Once again they hit the road for Bloomington and returned this time with 3rd place honors. The following weekend was spent at Winnetka, where they competed in the State Meet. To close their first season they met East Rockford at Peoria but again dropped their meet 43-23.

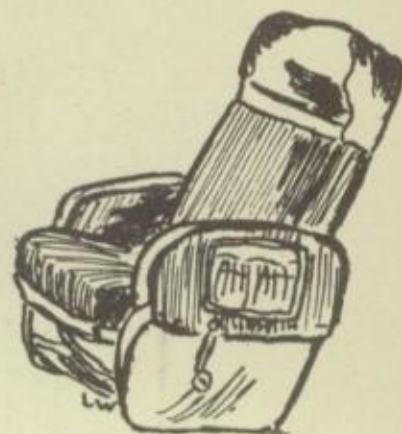

Although this wasn't an exceptional season, as the scores show, the team developed more power and strength as time went by, and the competition at the State was the strongest in years. The outlook for next year is bright with four lettermen, Lyle Gift, Earl Loudenberg, Bill Bowen, and Jim Erkert returning.

Sports Managers

Along with every team goes its managers of whom one seldom hears. They prepare the team's equipment, give the fellows rub-downs, and do odd jobs at practice. Many lack skill for competition, but their love of sports has led them to become managers.

Intramural Athletics

IRVIN BLUNDELL
Intramural Director

Intramural life at P. H. S. took a new turn this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Blundell. To start the season rolling, bowling teams were organized. Later, the basketball teams were also organized and began their seasons. On January 26th the elimination tournament started, which resulted in Minnesota (Jr.-Sr.) vs. St. Marys (Fr.-Soph.)—St. Mary' won. The combined teams dropped one game to Manual's Comets at Manual, but revenged that loss a week later in the Central gym.

The Intramural activities have certainly been tops this year both in management and competition, and we're looking forward to more years with Mr. Blundell as sponsor.

WE'RE PROUD OF YOU

We're proud of you . . . proud of you young Americans who have worked hard and studied through hectic war-time years to help share the responsibility of the Peace. There were thousands of young men and women who gave their lives for the price of this Peace, so bitterly fought for, so gloriously won . . . and now, the responsibility is yours . . . the responsibility of keeping this a world free from war, the responsibility of making this a better nation . . . a nation bound with everlasting Peace . . . beginning today!

These Bradley students, Peoria High School graduates, join with Bradley's president, David Blair Owen, in extending GREETINGS FROM BRADLEY TO THE PEORIA HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1946.

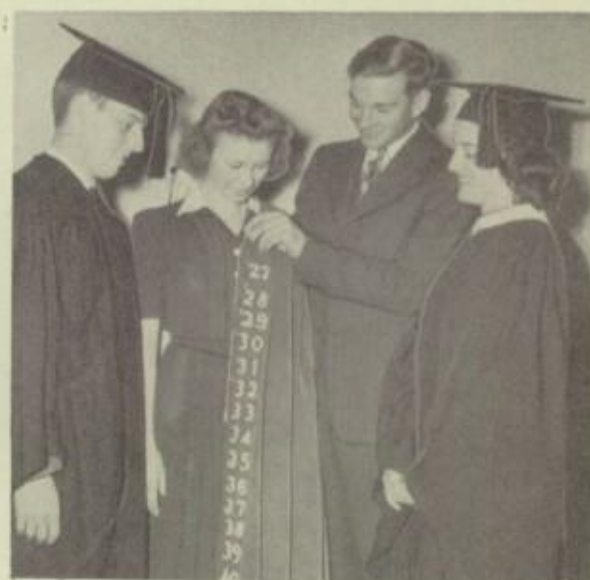

Serenaders at North Hall, one of Bradley's seven women's dormitories.

Campus life on the Hilltop is rich and varied . . . Homecoming bonfires and stunt shows, the Spring Festival, Parents' Day, the brilliant proms, or leisure hours at the student union soda fountain or in the browsing rooms.

As a medium sized institution, Bradley combines the wide choice of courses of the large university with the intimacy and personal attention of the small college. In addition to the general college program, Bradley offers specialized training in art, business administration, engineering, home economics, industrial arts, music, teacher training, and others.

Among the many interesting traditions associated with Bradley Commencement Week is the ceremony in which the scarlet velvet "mantle of learning" is passed from the shoulders of the highest ranking senior woman to the highest ranking junior woman in a Class Day ceremony conducted by the junior-senior class presidents.

The 100-voice Bradley A Cappella Choir, which has broadcast over the leading coast-to-coast networks and which goes on frequent concert tours, is but one of the many types of student activity which flourish at Bradley. Others include many honorary fraternities, social organizations, college publications, clubs, dramatic groups such as Mask and Gavel and Theta Alpha Phi, and other musical organizations.
